Hello. It's me, OfficialLieDetector!

I've been thinking, and I've decided…

You know how movies have teaser trailers to drum up hype for movies & TV shows?

Well, I'm gonna do that, for my own stories, whether be Original Stories, or Fanfiction!

“But Lie Detector” I hear you ask. “How are you gonna do that?”

Well, my dear reader, whenever I announce a new project, I advertise it, using this fic!

Everytime a new project is close to release, I’ll upload a (not an actual) trailer for it in this very document!

That way, you guys will know about it!

But that’s not all!

I’ll also be able to use this for other things, like sharing milestones, whether they be for my account, or the stories I post.

So anyways, I hope this idea of mine turns out successful.

Cya!!!

Signing off, OfficialLieDetector.
